ZOYA

ARTISANAL RUGS

The Floré Collection is a understated , tone-on-tone design that celebrates texture through subtle contrast.

Hand-tufted with a wool loop background, the foundation takes visual priority, creating a grounded, textural surface that feels calm and considered.

The bamboo silk pattern sits gently across the field in closely related tones, slightly raised and hand-carved to introduce quiet detail while softening overall contrast.

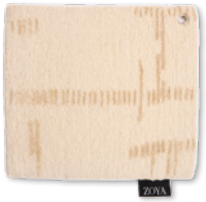

The result is a beautifully balanced rug where texture leads and pattern supports, ideal for interiors seeking warmth, depth, and understated tonal elegance.

Each piece is made to order with a lead time of 10–12 weeks, reflecting Zoya's commitment to refined, modern craftsmanship.
